

RAID ON NEW YORK HOTEL NETS PUBLIC BARRED NARCOTICS WORTH HALF MILLION IN POULIN CASE

Seizures Cut Selling Artery Between Drug Center and Remainder of Nation, Declares Leader of Searchers

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A drug raid, declared to be the biggest ever carried out in the United States, was made on the Hotel Douglas in the Times Square district Friday by 40 detectives under the direction of Dr. Carleton Simon, special deputy police commissioner in charge of the division of narcotics. The raiders said they had secured $500,000 worth of drugs.

The hotel is of the "family hotel" type and caters to theatrical people.

"BLACK BOOK" FOUND.

According to statements by Dr. Simon, based on reports of detectives who have been living in the hotel as guests since last May and obtaining information from frequenters of the place, international drug operations radiated from the quiet family hotel and one man was accustomed to make frequent trips between this country and Europe to purchase narcotics for distribution from this center.

The seizure, Dr. Simon said, "cut the selling artery between the drug center and the remainder of the United States."

A "black book" was found in the hotel vault, Dr. Simon said, and he declared this will furnish addresses of drug distributors in many cities throughout this country and Canada. Complaints, Dr. Simon said, have come from the Royal Northwest Mounted police regarding operations in Canada of the drug distributors working from this city. He also received a letter from the chief of police of St. Louis, declaring that the drug ring was operating there.

Hotel guests and employees in the lobby were not permitted to leave while the raid was in progress. Guests in their rooms also were told to remain where they were.

The vault of the hotel was found locked and a safe expert who accompanied the raiders opened it. Inside were two trunks said to contain various narcotics. In the cellar the raiders said they found a negro porter trying the drug away two more trunks, which, they said, also contained narcotics.

The raiders also said they saw one of the clerks take a package of drugs from a desk drawer and secrete it. He was arrested as were the porter and two alleged proprietors of the hotel.

In addition to the trunks filled with narcotics, Dr. Simon said the raid netted drugs in many of the rooms where mattresses and furniture were searched.

In obtaining evidence preliminary to the raid, Dr. Simon revealed that last Tuesday one of his detectives purchased $400,000 worth of narcotics from one of the men alleged to be operating from the hotel and acting as an importing agent.

Defense Calls Witnesses in Effort to Refute Woman's Story

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 23.—The defense in the case of Harry Poulin, charged by Mrs. Augusta Tiernan with being the father of her 10-month-old child, called several witnesses to the stand Friday in an effort to break down testimony of the plaintiff regarding the occasion she said Poulin was in her company.

Joseph Poulin, brother of the defendant, testified he saw Poulin at church on several of the occasions Mrs. Tiernan had testified he was with her. On several of the nights in question he had taken his brother to the services in his automobile, the witness testified. Direct examination of the witness was in progress when court was adjourned for the day.

SPECTATORS BARRED.

Following adjournment Judge Duncumb announced the board of public works had passed an ordinance forbidding spectators to attend the trial after Friday. Large crowds have jammed the court room since the start of the trial and many times the hearings had to be suspended while court attaches attempted to quiet the uproar among spectators during tense moments of the trial. There also has been much "hissing and booing" of witnesses.

Other witnesses testifying today included Mrs. Mary Donohue, half-sister of Mrs. Poulin, wife of the defendant, and Mrs. Joseph Poulin, sister-in-law of Poulin. Their testimony was similar to that of Joseph Poulin, both asserting that they had seen the defendant at church services on the nights he is alleged by Mrs. Tiernan to have been with her.

W. D. Beecher, a grocer, was called to the stand by defense counsel in an effort to impeach testimony of Professor John Tiernan, who had testified that he had not gone under the name of Cannon when he first came to South Bend. The prosecution immediately objected to the testimony of Beecher and after much wrangling between attorneys, Judge Duncumb announced he would render a decision today as to whether the testimony would be admissible.

COLD LOOKS EXCHANGED.

Mrs. Mae Poulin, wife of the defendant, was the first witness to take the stand Friday, her examination continuing over from Thursday. Her testimony was much the same as that given Thursday, which was to the effect that she accompanied her husband to church on the nights Mrs. Tiernan charges the latter held trysts with her.

As Mrs. Poulin took the stand, she glanced for a brief moment at her husband's accuser. As their eyes met the women gazed coldly at each other. As Mrs. Poulin denied all knowledge of the alleged relations between her spouse and Mrs. Tiernan, the latter looked in astonishment at the witness and occasionally shook her head in surprise.

PERSHING COMMENDS LEGION'S ACTIVITIES

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 23.—In an address at the state convention of the American legion here today, General John J. Pershing declared:

"The spirit that animated the A. E. F. was never excelled in any army in the history of the world."

"It is gratifying to know that the men of the legion today are imbued with the same spirit that imbued them when they were ordered to storm the German trenches. The American legion knows by experience the need of a national program of preparedness. I wish to thank you for what you have done for the cause of preparedness so we shall not be caught again in such a lamentable state of unpreparedness as when we entered the war."

North Kansas City, was released by the police, after being informed by a railroad section foreman that he was not the man whom he saw Monday morning with the girl near the scene of the murder.

Monteleone was arrested after an anonymous call to police headquarters by a woman who said: "Arrest Monteleone and you'll have the right man. He killed the girl." She said, according to the police, that Monteleone had been living with the girl.

When asked what caused her to believe he killed the girl, she said she would call later.

RIO GRANDE WON'T RECOGNIZE UNIONS

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 23.—Striking shopmen of the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad company, will be taken back only as individuals and any new agreement will be negotiated with the associations of mechanical crafts now being formed. It was announced in an official bulletin issued following a conference here Friday between officials of the company and striking shopmen.

Another report states that the Turkish officers in Bizka communicated with the British commander in Chank, asking to be informed of the precise line bounding the neutral zone. This was done and the Turks, according to the report, assured the British they had no orders nor intentions as yet to violate the neutrality of the zone.

ONE ALARMING REPORT.

Among the latest dispatches from the Far East, many of which are most alarming, is a report to the Times that large forces of Kamait cavalry have reached Adramytti from Smyrna, moving toward the neutral zone. (Adramytti is 50 miles southeast of Chank near the gulf of Adramytti.)

First Test of Eastern Teams Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Football will take its place in the east's athletic sports week when more than a score of college and service eleven go into action for the opening of the fall campaign.

Vale, Penn State, Washington & Jefferson, and Syracuse are among the larger institutions whose pigskin warriors will get their first test.

Most of the bigger colleges will not line up for their first games until next Saturday.

The Bulldog faces Bates in its opening encounter and, according to New Haven reports, Head Coach Tad Jones has a husky and well drilled crew to take the field. Penn State, declared to be another powerful contender, despite the loss of several stars, will meet St. Bonaventure, Syracuse is to meet Hobart and W. & J. plays Geneva at Washington, Pa.
